Special Wastes

Appliances can be taken to Sims Recycling. Sims will pay for appliances. Sims doesn't accept appliances whose Freon lines have been tampered with. The Delaware County Solid Waste Transfer Station accepts non freon appliances at no charge. Call Keep Delaware County Beautiful to ask about our spring drop off & Senior Citizen Appliance Pick Up! Call Buck & Rob's Hauling at 614-778-9384 for year round appliance pick ups.

Automobiles may be accepted by many charities.

Batteries (lead acid) should be traded in at the retailer or taken to the Transfer Station or Sims Recycling. Rechargables can be taken to Batteries Plus (614) 396-5490 or Home Depot Stores. Batteries Plus accepts household (alkaline) batteries. Tape terminals & place in airtight plastic bag for safety.

Cell Phones and peripherals may be taken to the Columbus Zoo, Sims Recycling, Delaware County Victims Services or Sheriff's Office.

Electronics are accepted at Sims Recycling or Best Buy. See table. T.V.s usually accepted for a fee.

Gasoline can be taken to Central Ohio Oil, 795 Marion Rd. in Columbus, 614-443-9728.

Household Hazardous Waste Drop Off is held in two of the District's 4 counties each fall. Paint is not accepted. To learn how to dry paint or find out about drop offs, call Keep Delaware County Beautiful at 740-368-1700. Call EEI at 614-294-1300 for pay to dispose program.

Light Bulbs (Compact Fluorescents ONLY) can be taken to Home Depot Stores.

Motor Oil can be taken to TSC, Auto Zone, Wal-Mart Tire & Lube in Delaware or Lewis Center or ask your service station.

Tires should be traded in when new tires are purchased. Take tires to the Delaware County Solid Waste Transfer Station (740-369-7700) or Liberty Tire Service of Ohio (614-871-8097) for a fee. The DKMM Solid Waste District accepts tires at its Household Hazardous Waste drop offs each fall.

Vegetable Oils can be recycled. Call MB Katter at (740) 362-3000.

Yard Waste can be taken to Price-Farms Organics, (740-362-4838), 4838 Warrensburg Rd. Residents of the DKMM Solid Waste District may bring yard trimmings at no charge.

Curbside Recycling Opportunities . . .

Some local waste haulers offer recycling programs for the convenience of their customers. Communities such as Delaware, Powell, Ashley, Galena, Genoa & Orange Townships, and Shawnee Hills provide recycling programs for their residents. Call your city, village, or township office to learn how you can participate!
